

Wit vs United Behavioral Health and Other Pending Parity Litigation: What Will It Mean for People with Behavioral Health Needs?

Wit vs United Behavioral Health and Other Pending Parity Litigation: What Will It Mean for People with Behavioral Health Needs?

Wednesday, November 20, 2019

3:00 PM EST

Description: Zuckerman Spaeder partners D. Brian Hufford (head of health care litigation) and Caroline Reynolds (who led the trial team) will be explaining the Wit v United Behavioral Healthcare (UBH) ruling from the United States District Court in the Northern District of California that found UBH used flawed and overly-restrictive internal guidelines in denying mental health and substance use disorder coverage claims for tens of thousands of its covered individuals, including children. Brian and Caroline will also discuss the repercussions of this case, and other pending parity litigation.

First Name

Last Name

Suffix

Address

City/Town

State/Province

- None -

ZIP/Postal Code

Cell Phone

Email address

Organization / Employer

Job Title

What topics of interest would compel you to participate in future webinars?

How did you hear about this webinar?

How did you hear about this webinar?

- None -

Enter other...

Would you like to receive news updates from MHA?

☐ Yes

☐ No

Submit